About the Knowledge and Human Development Authority

KHDA is an education authority, created to improve schools and other human resource sectors in Dubai. They work to promote lifelong learning to fulfill Dubai's aspirations. KHDA's mission is to assure quality and to improve accessibility to education, learning and human development, with the engagement of the community. They coordinate with many different partners – students, parents, teachers, the private sector and other Government bodies. KHDA's work plans are derived from the Government's strategy and carried out in a transparent manner to make sure everything we do benefits their highest priority – Dubai's students.

About the Dubai School of Government

The Dubai School of Government (DSG) is a research and teaching institution focusing on public policy in the Arab world. Established in 2005 under the patronage of HH Sheikh Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President and Prime Minister of the United Arab Emirates and Ruler of Dubai, in cooperation with the Harvard Kennedy School, DSG aims to promote good governance through enhancing the region's capacity for effective public policy. Toward this goal, the Dubai School of Government also collaborates with regional and global institutions in delivering its research and training programs. In addition, the School organizes policy forums and international conferences to facilitate the exchange of ideas and promote critical debate on public policy in the Arab world.
